4. 449 Silent night, holy night
5. 30 Angels from the realms of glory

7. 348 O come, all ye faithful

Prayers for the week: Collect for today Eternal God, as Mary waited for the birth of your Son, so we wait for his coming in glory; bring us through the birth pangs of this present age to see, with her, our great salvation in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

We pray for the suffering, especially James Cherry, Ann Smith, David Williams, Mandy Rochell, Pat Wilcock, Marjorie Moorhouse, Margaret Hobson, Kathleen Carline, Anne Milnes, the patients at our local hospices and those who live in Cygnet Lodge. Ease their pain, and heal the damage done to them in body, mind or spirit. Be present to them through the support of family and friends and in the care of doctors and nurses and fill them with the warmth of your love.

We bring before you the hopes and fears of our own neighbourhood, especially for those people who live in Unity Court, Stonelea Drive, Garlick Street, Greenhead Lane, Delph Hill and for all our schools starting their Christmas holiday

We pray for those who have died, especially those who have recently died. Grant them peace and rest. Be close to those who mourn and give them comfort of human affection and strength to continue in their own lives.

If you would like to help but think other commitments might get in the way don't worry as we always ask before an event if you are available. If we have a bigger pool of talent then the burden is shared amongst more people and it is less of a strain for individuals. There are more registration forms at the back of Church.
