INTERNATIONAL CENTRE APPLICATION – ANNEX 1 CENTRE AGREEMENT

DATE OF AGREEMENT: [Insert Date]

PARTIES TO THIS AGREEMENT

1. National Association of Licensed Paralegals (NALP) of LG.02 Lincoln House, London SW9 6DE ('The AO') and
2. [Insert name and address of centre, 'The Centre']

Within the Agreement the parties named above shall be referred to as 'the parties'.

PURPOSE OF THIS AGREEMENT

This agreement is for the purpose of clearly specifying the role and responsibilities of a centre in their dealings with the awarding body named above. Contents of this agreement are in keeping with the requirements of the General Conditions of Recognition as issued by The Office of Qualifications and Examinations Regulation (Ofqual) as the regulator of qualifications (other than degrees), examinations and assessments in England. By signing this agreement the centre confirms their understanding of the terms and conditions and agrees to adhere to the requirements herein. The terms specified in this agreement will be referred to where there is any dispute or disagreement relating to the role and responsibilities of a centre.

DURATION OF THIS AGREEMENT

This agreement will remain in force on a rolling 12 month basis from the date specified above subject to compliance with the clauses mentioned in the body of this agreement and subject to the Centre paying the annual Centre fee and providing confirmation of compliance. The Centre will be required to confirm their continued adherence to this agreement on an annual basis as part of the annual re-approval process.

INTERPRETATIONS

Centre means an organisation undertaking the delivery of an assessment (and potentially other activities) to Learners on behalf of an awarding organisation. Centres are typically educational institutions, training providers, or employers.

Awarding Organisation means an organisation recognised by Ofqual in respect of the design, development, delivery and award of regulated qualifications.

General Conditions of Recognition means the General Conditions of Recognition issued by Ofqual in June 2016 or any subsequent version of this document.

POINTS HEREBY AGREED

The Centre hereby agrees that it will:

1. General Conditions of Recognition

1a. adhere to the requirements of the General Conditions of Recognition in relation to the activity it undertakes to deliver qualifications on behalf of the Awarding Organisation. In particular, those requirements specified in Condition C1 and C2 will be observed.

1b. take all reasonable steps to ensure that the Awarding Organisation is able to comply with the General Conditions of Recognition.

2. Retention of records and access to records, people and premises

2a. maintain all Learner records and details of achievement in an accurate, timely and secure manner in line with the requirements of the Awarding Organisation and Data Protection Legislation (particularly the General Data Protection Regulations) and make these records available for external quality assurance and auditing purposes, as required by the Awarding Organisation and/or Ofqual.

2b. take all reasonable steps to comply with requests from the Awarding Organisation for information, data or documents required by the Awarding Organisation within any deadlines set by the Awarding Organisation or within 10 working days, whichever is the sooner.

2c. take all reasonable steps to comply with requests from the Awarding Organisation for information, data or documents required by Ofqual or another regulator within any deadlines provided by the Awarding Organisation or within 10 working days, whichever is the sooner.

2d. retain complete accurate records, for at least three years from completion of all qualifications and make these available to the Awarding Organisation upon request.

2e. provide the Awarding Organisation and the Regulatory Authorities access to any and all premises (including satellite sites), people and records as required, and fully cooperate with their monitoring activities, providing such access if necessary, without prior notice.

3. Monitoring activity and investigations

3a. assist the awarding organisation in carrying out any reasonable monitoring activities and will assist Ofqual in any investigations made for the purposes of performing its functions.

4. Centre Workforce

4a. retain a Workforce of appropriate size and competence to undertake the delivery of the qualification. This includes taking reasonable steps to ensure occupational competence where this is required for the assessment of specific qualifications.

4b. ensure that it has available sufficient managerial and other resources to enable it effectively and efficiently to undertake the delivery of the qualification as required by the awarding organisation.

4c. provide staff with appropriate inductions and professional development (including a development plan) to ensure staff can maintain their expertise and competence for the qualification(s).

4d. supply staff CVs and other evidence (for example original certificates) to the Awarding Organisation in a timely manner upon request.

4e. have in place appropriate staff and relevant systems before the qualifications are made available in accordance with the requirements of the qualification(s).

4f. ensure that staff involved with a qualification have been given access to and understand the relevant Qualification Specification, available to download on the Awarding Organisation's website

4g. ensure effective communications systems are in place internally to keep all relevant staff informed of current Awarding Organisation policies and procedures.

4h. ensure that quality assurance and management processes are in place that apply across all satellite locations.

5. Legislation

5a. undertake the delivery of the qualification in accordance with the requirements of the Awarding Organisation and Ofqual, which are in line with the Equality Act 2010.

5b. ensure all equipment and accommodation used for the purpose of qualification delivery and assessment comply with the requirements of all relevant Health and Safety regulations.

5c. comply with the requirements of Data Protection legislation, including the General Data Protection Regulations and the Privacy and Electronic Communications Regulations, in relation to all Learner data.

5d. comply with all relevant law, regulatory criteria and codes of practice as updated and amended from time to time.

5e. inform the Awarding Organisation immediately of any conflict between a legislative requirement in their own country or region and a requirement set out in this document or any legislation or regulation mentioned herein.

6. Complaints and Appeals

6a. operate a complaint handling process and appeals process for the benefit of Learners, including reference to their rights of escalation to the Awarding Organisation and Ofqual.

6b. adhere to the Awarding Organisation's appeals process and provide appropriate information and support to enable Learners to access the appeals process.

7. Malpractice and Maladministration

7a. have in place robust procedures for preventing and investigating incidents of malpractice or maladministration which are up to date and communicated across the Centre.

7b. regularly review procedures for preventing and investigating incidents of malpractice or maladministration and make any improvements necessary to ensure they remain relevant and fit for purpose.

7c. take all reasonable steps to prevent incidents of malpractice or maladministration from occurring.

7d. inform the Awarding Organisation immediately on discovery of any malpractice or maladministration, or potential malpractice or maladministration, in line with the Awarding Organisations Malpractice and Maladministration Policy.

7e. take reasonable steps to investigate any suspected incidents of malpractice or maladministration and rectify any negative impact of these incidents, whilst acknowledging that the Awarding Organisation must be able to conduct its own, independent, investigation of any such incident and may not accept that carried out by the Centre.

7f. adhere to any action plan for managing and rectifying the negative impact of any incidents of malpractice or maladministration put in place by the Awarding Organisation, including adherence to any deadlines therein.

7g. take appropriate and proportionate action against those responsible for the malpractice or maladministration to ensure it does not re-occur in the future, as instructed or supported by the Awarding Organisation.

7h. deliver in full the actions required to manage and rectify any identified incidents of malpractice or maladministration within the timescales laid down by the Awarding Organisation.

7i. provide access to documents, records, data, staff, third parties, sub-contractors, Learners, satellite centres or any other resource required by the Awarding Organisation during an investigation of centre of malpractice or maladministration, including, where necessary, without prior notice.

7j. take all reasonable steps to ensure that no Learner is disadvantaged by the incident, including, but not limited to, ensuring that any re-sit is financed by the Centre.

8. Moderation

8a. work in line with the moderation processes specified by the Awarding Organisation which will be undertaken by the Awarding Organisation or on its behalf.

8b. work in line with any instruction issued by the Awarding Organisation to change the marking of evidence generated by a Learner during an assessment.

9. Resources

9a. use buildings that provide access for Learners for assessment purposes, in accordance with relevant equalities legislation.

9b. ensure that the full range of relevant, current equipment required to assess the qualification is supplied.

9c. adhere to any assessment requirements as per the qualification requirements.

9d. provide the necessary resources in accordance with any requirements outlined in the Awarding Organisation's qualification specification.

9e. maintain adequate systems and resources— including where appropriate, equipment, materials and software – to support the delivery of the qualification(s).

9f. ensure the security of any examination material in respect of storage and the handling process in line with the requirements of the Awarding Organisation.

9g. has the necessary level of financial, technical and staffing resources and systems necessary to support the delivery of the Awarding Organisation's qualifications.

10. Learner Registration and Certification

10a. register/enter Learners for assessment in an efficient manner and following the Awarding Organisation's timetables.

10b. registers each Learner in line with the requirements of the Awarding Organisation to ensure that each Learner is uniquely identified.

10c. takes appropriate and reliable steps to confirm each Learner's identity prior to assessment taking place, including checking officially recognised photographic ID.

10d. use the record of the Learner's previous achievements to ensure that opportunities for credit transfer and exemption are maximised, where Learner consent is given.

10e. recognise any restrictions regarding the minimum amount of time that Learners must be registered with the Awarding Organisation before certification, as well as the combination of units and or qualifications allowed.

10f. take reasonable steps to ensure that all relevant Centre staff understand how and when to apply for Learner registration and certification.

10g. take all reasonable steps to guard against fraudulent or mistaken claims for certificates.

10h. ensure that all Learner details registered for a qualification are accurate and complete prior to any request for certification being made.

11. Management of third parties and sub-contractors

11a. implement and maintain an effective system for the management of all third party and subcontracted services and ensure that all policies and requirements referred to in this agreement apply to these third parties and sub-contractors.

11b. ensure that where a partnership arrangement exists the respective roles and responsibilities are documented and made available to the Awarding Organisation as required.

11c. ensure that no satellite centres are opened or operated without the prior written consent of the Awarding Organisation.

11d. have in place agreements with third parties and sub-contractors to ensure that all policies and requirements referred to in this agreement are enforceable with third parties and subcontractors.

11e. ensure that all policies and requirements referred to in this agreement will apply to these third parties and sub-contractors any satellite sites affiliated to the centre, for example remote assessment sites or delivery points.

11f. ensure it has effective communications systems in place with third parties and subcontractors to keep them up to date with the requirements of the Awarding Organisation and the Regulators.

12. Withdrawal of approval and interests of Learners

12a. co-operate fully with the Awarding Organisation in cases where either the Centre or the Awarding Organisation decides it needs to withdraw the Centre from its role in delivering a qualification. This co-operation will be provided whether the withdrawal is voluntary or not from the Centre's perspective.

12b. take all reasonable steps to protect the interests of Learners in the case of such a withdrawal as referred to in point 12a above. This will apply whether the withdrawal is voluntary or not from the Centre's perspective.

12c. make best endeavours to find alternative centres to provide the complete qualification for Learners if the Centre withdraws the qualification midway through learners training, development or assessment. This will apply whether the withdrawal is voluntary or not from the Centre's perspective.

12d. make adequate financial provision for Learners who need to be allocated to an alternative Centre for the purposes of completing their qualification.

13. Invoicing

13a. provide payment of all valid invoices presented by the Awarding Organisation as per the conditions of the Invoicing Policy.

The awarding organisation hereby agrees that it will:

1. set out all the requirements with which the Centre must comply in order to continue to deliver the qualifications.
2. publish and make available to the Centre a sanctions policy to be applied in the event that the Centre fails to comply with these requirements.
3. take all reasonable steps to protect the interests of Learners where the Centre withdraws from the delivery of a qualification.
4. specify a process to be followed in any withdrawal of the Centre (whether voluntary or not) from its role in delivering a qualification.
5. provide effective guidance to the Centre in respect of the parts of the delivery of qualifications which the Centre undertakes.
6. upon request, provide the Centre with guidance on how to best prevent, investigate and deal with malpractice or maladministration.
7. provide a full invoicing policy to state the Awarding Organisation's processes for issuing invoices, payment of invoices and the retention and content of invoices.

INDEMNITY

1. The Centre shall indemnify the Awarding Organisation against all liabilities, costs, expenses, damages, and losses (including but not limited to) any direct, indirect or consequential losses, loss of profit, loss of reputation and all interest, penalties, and legal costs (calculated on a full indemnity basis) and all and other professional costs and expenses suffered or incurred by the Awarding Organisation arising out of or in connection with any claim made against the Awarding Organisation arising out of or incurred by reason of any breach by the Centre of any of its obligations under the Agreement.

TERMINATION

1. Without limiting its other rights or remedies, either party may terminate the Contract by giving the other party three months' written notice.
2. Without limiting its other rights or remedies, either party may terminate the Contract with immediate effect by giving written notice to the other party if:
 - (a) the other party commits a material breach of any term of the Contract and (if such a breach is remediable) fails to remedy that breach within 30 days of that party being notified in writing to do so;
 - (b) the other party suspends, or threatens to suspend, payment of its debts or is unable to pay its debts as they fall due or admits inability to pay its debts or (being a company or limited liability partnership) is deemed unable to pay its debts within the meaning of section 123 of the Insolvency Act 1986 or (being an individual) is deemed either unable to pay its debts or as having no reasonable prospect of so doing, in either case, within the meaning of section 268 of the Insolvency Act 1986 or (being a partnership) has any partner to whom any of the foregoing apply;
 - (c) the other party commences negotiations with all or any class of its creditors with a view to rescheduling any of its debts, or makes a proposal for or enters into any compromise or arrangement with its creditors;
 - (d) a petition is filed, a notice is given, a resolution is passed, or an order is made, for or in connection with the winding up of that other party (being a company);
 - (e) the other party (being an individual) is the subject of a bankruptcy petition or order;
 - (f) a creditor or encumbrancer of the other party attaches or takes possession of, or a distress, execution, sequestration or other such process is levied or enforced on or sued against, the whole or any part of its assets and such attachment or process is not discharged within 14 days;
 - (g) an application is made to court, or an order is made, for the appointment of an administrator or if a notice of intention to appoint an administrator is given or if an administrator is appointed over the other party (being a company);
 - (h) a person becomes entitled to appoint a receiver over the assets of the other party or a receiver is appointed over the assets of the other party; and
 - (i) the other party suspends or ceases, or threatens to suspend or cease, to carry on all or a substantial part of its business.

3. Without limiting its other rights or remedies, the Awarding Organisation may terminate the Contract with immediate effect by giving written notice to the Centre if:
 - (a) the Centre fails to pay any amount due under this Contract on the due date for payment and fails to pay all outstanding amounts within 7 days after being notified in writing to do so; or
 - (b) the financial position of the Centre deteriorates to such an extent that in the Awarding Organisation' opinion the Centre's capability to adequately fulfil its obligations under the Contract has been placed in jeopardy; or
 - (c) the ownership, management, or control (within the meaning of section 1124 Corporation Tax Act 2010) of the Centre is transferred to a party who has previously lost the approval of the Awarding Organisation or another regulated awarding organisation or who in the reasonable opinion of the Awarding Organisation has shown itself not to be fit and proper in relation any involvement in the delivery or administration of regulated qualifications.
4. Without limiting its other rights or remedies, the Awarding Organisation may suspend provision of the Services under the Contract or any other contract between the Awarding Organisation and the Centre if the Centre becomes subject to any of the events listed in clause 2 above or the Awarding Organisation reasonably believes that the Centre is about to become subject to any of them, or if the Centre fails to pay any amount due under this Contract on the due date for payment.

FORCE MAJEURE

1. For the purposes of this Contract, Force Majeure Event means an event beyond the reasonable control of the Awarding Organisation including but not limited to strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disputes (whether involving the workforce of the Centre or any other party), failure of a utility service or transport network, act of God, war, riot, civil commotion, malicious damage, compliance with any law or governmental order, rule, regulation or direction, accident, breakdown of plant or machinery, fire, flood, storm or default of Centres or subcontractors.
2. The Awarding Organisation shall not be liable to the Centre as a result of any delay or failure to perform its obligations under this Contract as a result of a Force Majeure Event.
3. If the Force Majeure Event prevents the Awarding Organisation from providing any of the Services for more than 4 weeks, the Awarding Organisation shall, without limiting its other rights or remedies, have the right to terminate this Contract immediately by giving written notice to the Centre.

Governing law

1. This Agreement, and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims), shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with the law of England and Wales.

JURISDICTION

1. Each party irrevocably agrees that the courts of England and Wales shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with this Contract or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims).

CENTRE AGREEMENT AND DECLARATION

I, the undersigned, declare that the centre understands that this is an enforceable agreement between the centre and the awarding organisation.

I accept that if the centre defaults on the commitments made in this application it may lead to the removal of qualification approval and possibly centre recognition status in line with the sanctions policy of the awarding organisation.

I declare that I am authorised by the centre to supply the information given above and, at the date of signing, the information provided is a true and accurate record to the best of my knowledge. I further declare that I am authorised by the Centre to sign this agreement on behalf of the Centre.

The parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed on the 'Date of Agreement' specified above.
