

DIOCESE OF SODOR AND MAN

PUBLIC DUTIES

Office holders have the right to spend reasonable time on public duties. This includes trade union activities where the union represents the office holder or others of the same description. Office holders may be given time off to undertake any national church and wider church responsibilities.

TERRITORIAL ARMY SECONDMENTS

Whilst away from your office you will receive financial remuneration, and also accrue Annual Leave from the Ministry of Defence. The Diocese is not obliged to pay your stipend or provide for the accrual of holiday entitlements or other benefits under Common Tenure. You will remain a member of the Clergy Pension Scheme and the Pensions Board will pay the contribution. Upon receipt of your mobilisation orders, you must notify the Archdeacon within seven days. You must write to the Archdeacon not later than the sixth Monday after the end of the mobilisation stating the date of your availability for returning to your office.
